It is strongly advised that travelers purchase trip cancellation and interruption insurance as protection against an emergency which may force you to cancel or leave from a workshop while it is in progress.

5. Travel insurance

Travelers need personal travel insurance that covers personal accidents or a medical emergency in the Arctic region of Svalbard.

6. Medical Information

Participation in a expedition held by Arctic Wildlife Tours AS requires that you are in generally good health. It is essential that persons with any medical problems and related dietary restrictions make them known to us before departure. We can counsel you on whether the arrangement you have selected is appropriate for you. The tour leader has the right to disqualify any participant at any time during the tour if he/she feels the participant is physically incapable and/or if participant will jeopardize either the individual involved or the group. There will be no refund given under these circumstances. By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition or disability that would create a hazard for him/herself or other participants.

7. Itinerary Cancellation

Arctic Wildlife Tours AS reserves the right to cancel or delay and change an itinerary before departure for any reason whatsoever, including too few participants or logistical problems such as strikes, wars, acts of God, or any other circumstances which may make operation of the trip inadvisable. All trip payments received will be promptly refunded in such a case, and this refund will be the limit of Arctic Wildlife Tours liability. AWT is not responsible for any expenses incurred by trip members in preparing the trip, including non-refundable or penalty-carrying airline tickets, special clothing, visa or passport fees or other trip related expenses.

8. Limitations of Liability.

In case of a medical problem arising during the voyage, either on board or on shore, which results in costs for evacuation, use of aircraft or other transportation, the responsibility for payment of these costs belongs solely to the passenger. Arctic Wildlife Tours strongly advises that passengers ensure that such eventualities are covered by travel insurance. If not covered by travel insurance the responsibility still remains with the passenger.

9. Tour Guarantee

The purchase of package tours in Norway and abroad are governed by the Norwegian Package Tour Act, which safeguards customers who have purchased package tours against loss due to bankruptcy, debt settlements or insolvency on the part of the tour organizer. The Tour Guarantee Fund refunds advance payments which a customer has paid in the event a tour is cancelled by the organizer. If a tour is interrupted while underway, the refund amount shall be equal to that portion of the advance payment for which performance of services has not been completed. Arctic Wildlife Tours AS is a member of the Tour Guarantee Fund in Norway, and more information may be obtained by contacting the Tour Guarantee Fund at Tel: (+47) 51859940 or on www.rgf.no

10. Travel to Svalbard

We strongly recommend to arrive in Longyearbyen minimum one day/night before the expedition start. This because of possibilities of delayed flights or missing luggage.
